

Time line puzzle pieces

In 1964 the Golden Toad was discovered! At least 200 toads were seen. F

In 1977, Scientists counted 988 toads in a single day. O

In 1987, Scientists observed a total of 1500 toads. R

In 1989, Only one golden toad was found. No other toads have been found since. E

In 1994, Scientists noted that droughts could be causing toad disappearances. S

In 2006, Scientists began to wonder how stress and climate change affected the Golden Toad. T

In 2010, Scientists continue to debate the complex reasons behind the disappearance. Was it a result of droughts related to climate change? A fungus that affected their skin? The research continues... S

The Puzzling Golden Toad Game Board

